

THE AMBASSADOR

CURRICULUM VITAE OF H.E. MR. ABDALLAH BAALI Born on October 19, 1954, Guelma, Algeria

Married with two children Diplomas:- Diploma of National School of Administration, Diplomatic Section, Algiers, 1977
 - Diploma in Contemporary American Politics, New York University (NYU), 1987. Career: Since November 5, 2008: Ambassador to the U.S.A.

2006 to October 2008:

- Ambassador Advisor at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs
- Special Envoy to African and Latin American States
- Head of Delegation at different International Conferences
- Head of delegation to Morocco- Saharawi negotiations on Western Sahara

1996-2005:

- Ambassador, Permanent Representative of Algeria to the United Nations, New York (1996-2005)
- Permanent Representative of Algeria to the United Nations Security Council (2004-2005)
- President of the Security Council in December 2004
- President of the 6th NPT Review Conference (New York, April-May 2000).
- Head of Delegation to the 1st and 2nd NPT Prep Com (1997-1999)
- Vice President of the 1st Prep Com of the CTBTO (1996-1997)
- Vice President of the 54th and 59th sessions of the UN GA
- Member of the Algerian Delegations to the NAM, OIC, G77 and African Union Summits
- Special Envoy to Central and Latin America

1992-1996:

- Ambassador of Algeria to Indonesia, Australia, New Zealand and Brunei Darussalam

1990-1992:

- Head of Division of Information and Documentation and Spokesperson of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs
- Member of the Algerian Delegations to various Maghreb and Arab Summits as well as to Presidential delegations in Arab, Maghreb and European Countries

1989-1990:

- Advisor to the Minister of Arab Maghreb and European Affairs

1982-1989:

- Member of the Permanent Mission of Algeria to the United Nations
- Alternate Representative to the Security Council (1988-1989)

1977-1982:

- Head of Desk at the Division of Political Affairs
- Member of the Algerian Delegation to the 3rd Conference on the Law of the Sea

Lectures: At Yale, Princeton, Fordham, Wilton Park (UK), Harvard University, Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy, George Washington University, Merrimack College, New York Council on Foreign Relation, le Centre d'Etudes Diplomatiques et Stratégiques of Paris, Institut Diplomatique et de Relations Internationales (Algiers), UNIDIR (Geneva), IAEA (Vienna) and various Disarmament Institutes (Monterrey, Tokyo, Albuquerque, Hiroshima). Member of the Monterrey Strategy Group on Non Proliferation (California, since July 2000).

Publications:

- Editor of the Algerian Review for International Affairs (1990-1992)
- Has published various articles pertaining to the 1996 Algerian Constitution, nuclear disarmament and the 2000 NPT Review Conference

Languages: Fluent in Arabic, French, English, and Spanish

Click here to read more about Ambassador's activities